Manheim Auctions, Bruntingthorpe takes off

Manheim Auctions' new super-centre at Bruntingthorpe, a former US Airforce base in Leicestershire, had a successful take off last week with a special Lombard Vehicle Management sale of 365 cars, including 60 prestige vehicles. The auction attracted nearly 300 buyers to the hall and online via Simulcast. The total value of vehicles sold was over £3.5 million and interest was especially strong in the prestige section which achieved 103% CAP Clean and an 80% conversion rate.

Richard Richmond, Head of Remarketing, Lombard Vehicle Management said: "Bruntingthorpe is a very impressive location with excellent facilities and I was very encouraged by the quality of the buyers attending and the values achieved. Lombard Vehicle Management has a strong working relationship with Manheim and I have no doubt that the success of Bruntingthorpe will further strengthen that partnership."

Mike Pilkington, Managing Director, Manheim Remarketing added: "Manheim Auctions' activity at Bruntingthorpe has got off to a great start and I am delighted by the success of this inaugural Lombard Vehicle Management sale which attracted many high profile buyers. This new super-centre further enhances Manheim's capability and enables us to set new standards in vehicle remarketing. I am confident that this new Midlands location for Manheim will prove very popular with both vendors and buyers in the months and years to come."

Forthcoming Wednesday auctions at Bruntingthorpe will take place at 10:30am on February 3rd and 17th and March 10th and 24th. The auction programme will expand during 2010 with regular sales on behalf of manufacturers and fleet and leasing companies, covering the full range of cars, vans and trucks. Manheim Auctions, Bruntingthorpe is located off J20 of the M1. More information is available at www.manheim.co.uk.
